EL FUTURO IN "THE TRAPPER GETS TRAPPED"

There are people who will tell you that I am ageless That I have lived for many centuries There are other people who claim that I know the ancient secrets of the East. And there are even those who say that I belong to the future. I make no comments on these statements or on any of the other things that they may say about me. I will only admit one thing. That where there is Evil in this world — I am dedicated to fighting it.

I saw on the deck of the houseboat MARGO, which was the official headquarters of the National Wildlife Service in this swamp-glade area Captain Henry Dickinson, in charge of this section spoke to me.

"We are very glad that Washington was able to get you to help us in this matter. I understand that you flew in from Nairobi to take charge of the situation. It is a very serious one For some time we have been noticing in our check-ups, that alligators are missing. Only through the assistance of a very honest pocket-book manufacturer did we learn of what is happening

He had been offered a dozen alligator skins In checking over them he found our metal I D tag on the tail of one. So he immediately suspected that somebody was illegally hunting them and killing them He gave us a description of the man but it hasn't helped at all Washington said you had a plan What is it?"

"You have already put it into effect," I smiled "Those very small tags that I designed to be attached under the jaws of the alligators emit a special Gamma Ray Will not injure the alligator But let me show you what we now have at hand"

I merely nodded my head slightly and Wambasa, my faithful helper went into action He brought a portable table and set it up before the two of us Then he opened a large suitcase which he placed on the table I then took out a screen which had a map painted on it

"Professor John Killogway of the Topolographical Unit made this map of this area for me" I explained " As I throw this switch you will notice the small dots As long as those dots are in this area the alligators are safe here Once we see one or two or more move out of the area, then we know the poachers are at work We now move this equipment into my stateroom Wambasa will be there without a break. He will eat his meals in my stateroom. We want no other person to know of this equipment. You will have the helicopter ready to go into action. Also a special alert for the State Police should we need them."

Later in the afternoon, I went with Captain Henry Dickinson to see Harry Blender. He was what is known as "an alligator wrestler." He would go into the water. Capture an alligator Then snap its jaw tightly shut. Next step he would massage the head of the creature until it became docile. Then the final step was for him to hold the head until one of the men attached a tag under its jaws.

He greeted me pleasantly and we shook hands Then he asked a question which others had asked before.

"Is it true that you can communicate with animals, birds, and fish?"

I said nothing but quickly undressed and there I was in my bathing shorts. I jumped into the water and vanished. Ten minutes later the two astonished men saw me - riding on the back of an alligator I came back to shore and waved to my alligator who then returned to the swamp land

"Draw any conclusion you wish" I said. "Seeing may be believing. And then again it may not

Suddenly I heard Wambasa shout He spoke to me in Bantu and then I knew we were on our trail

"Highway 23. Five dots are off here. We take the equipment up in the helicopter Alert the State Police I will change into dry clothes"

We followed a truck for five miles Then we signalled to the Police Patrol to close in. The helicopter landed near it. The driver of the truck came out onto the road and was angry.

"I'm not breaking any law," he said "I got a load of oranges

"With five alligators as extra cargo, I added

"Who ratted on us?" he wanted to know

"The alligators themselves." I grinned in reply
